

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Former Ald. Frank J. Wilson gave $1,000 diamond star presented by constituents to married woman. Gift revealed when E. E. Skoglund, contractor tried to levy judgment on gem.

College girls at Oak Park forced to postpone Greek dance. Too cold to dance in flimsy robes on lawn.

Michael Potocki, fugitive banker, located in Germany. Wanted for $2,000 embezzlement. Cannot be extradited.

H. Glass, 2221 Gladys av., and J. V. Glass, 459 Eastwood av., held for taking merchandise from Montgomery Ward & Co. Goods valued at $1,200 recovered.

Policeman James J. Doyle, 5409 W. Congress st., who shot and seriously wounded Policeman John J. Maly, will be arraigned today.

Ralph Root, advertising agent University of Chicago publications, charged with fraud.

Jasper E. Oglesby, son of Former Gov. Oglesby, given until July 17 to pay $75 note.

Protection of subnormals urged by Judge Olsen. Would modify criminal code along scientific lines.

Mrs. Anna Gart, 2604 Ainslie st., mysteriously shot while working on farm. May die.

Mayor may oust George Weston, city representative of board of supervising engineers.

Ald. Douglass and Postmaster Smith, Lake Forest, fined. Disorderly conduct. Interfered with firemen while school burned down.

80 graduated at Art Institute. 125 awarded prizes.

Women seek vote for county commissioners. Election board may concede right.

Walter C. Larned, author and editor, dead.

John R. Palandech appointed superintendent of social survey bureau. Unidentified body found in drainage canal.

Dr. Stephen R. Pietrowicz made member of school board. Succeeds Julius F. Smietanka.

Joseph Staika, 839 W. Superior st., hit by auto, dying. Granger Collins, Lillian Tuttle and Margaret G. Seelig, occupants of auto, arrested.

Abel Hanson, 65, 13 S. Honore st., hit by Leo A. Schueneman's auto. Condition serious.

Fire losses for last 5 months $2,895,549.

Society swells at South Shore Country Club circus stung by shell game men. Thought it joke. Con men got away with coin.

Ministers at Morgan Park plan nickel show. Want to drive "The Ridge," new movie house, from business. Place, open Sunday, emptied churches.

Miss Emma Miller, 1561 Cleveland av., cut hand. Blood poison. Dead.

Safe of Deardorff & Huffman, 2455 Harrison st., blown open. John Cody, alleged burglar, shot in leg.

Thos. A. Payne held to grand jury for alleged embezzlement of $1,400.

Theodore J. Keane chosen dean of Chicago Art Institute.

Council committee decided to put Parmelee Co. on same basis as other firms.

Suits for $100,000 filed against Isador Springer, real estate dealer. Claim he accepted $6,000 for option and failed to deliver title.

Rivers McNeil will be appointed collector of customs, according to Sen. Lewis.

Inventory of Thomas S. Kirkwood estate $334,671.

J. J. Furlong will be named as appraiser of customs and J. J. McLaughlin appraiser of postoffices. Chas. Kline, Aurora, seeking office of U. S. district attorney.

Judge Foell dismissed divorce suit of Elmore C. Fisher. Women filed new bill on same grounds.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, actress, on witness stand in movie suit. Is suing